FAY TO RETIRE FROM RAILROAD ACTIVITY

President of Southern Pacific Lines in Texas Out on September 1.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 16.—Thornwell Fay, president of the Southern Pacific Lines in Texas and Louisiana, announced today that on September 1 he would resign permanently from railroad service. Mr. Fay says that after 25 years of continued service he is entitled to a rest.

FREE LUNCH COUNTERS MAY BE SAVED BY REFERENDUM.

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 16.—A stay of execution has been granted to the "free lunch" counters of Los Angeles saloons. Under a recent ruling of the council it would have been unlawful after September 1 for saloon keepers to give away edibles with drinks. An appeal has been taken to the referendum law and a petition bearing 25,000 signatures was filed today with the city clerk.

RECOVER MISSING JEWELRY QUICKLY

Three Hours After Jewelry Disappears Detectives Recover It.

Three hours after jewelry valued at $1000 had been taken it was recovered by the city detectives, and identified by the owner. In connection with the missing jewelry city detective George Herold arrested Jose Maria Martinez.

Herold was passing a pawn shop on South El Paso street Thursday afternoon when he said that he saw Martinez in it with some watches and diamond rings. The detective was told by Martinez that the jewelry was purchased by him for $25. Martinez was taken to the detectives office in the city jail.

Shortly after this there was a "phone call from the Hotel Orndorff" to the effect that J. H. Hoyer had lost jewelry valued at $1000. Mr. Hoyer came to the detectives' office and identified the articles recovered by the city detectives as his property.

The robbery is alleged to have occurred at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon and by 3:30 o'clock the articles alleged to have been taken were in the hands of the detectives. This makes the third case of burglary which the city detectives made arrests in this week, and recovered the property alleged to have been stolen each time.

POISONED SOUP KILLS THREE; ONE DYING

Rocky Ford, Colo., Aug. 15.—Three persons are dead and one other is thought to be dying as the result of either arsenical or ptomaine poisoning, according to the belief of physicians.

The dead are: Mrs. Lena Latzke, wife of the Rev. Gustav Latzke sr., pastor of the German Lutheran church here.

Hanna Latzke, their 9 year old daughter.

Gustav Adolphus Latzke jr., aged 12. Rev. Gustav Adolphus Latzke is said to be dying.

The members of the Latzke family were taken violently ill yesterday after eating beef soup made in an enameled kettle.

Physicians were called and agreed that the deaths were the result of poison. They are at loss, however, to explain how the poison could have gotten into the food.

It was suggested that the poison was placed in the food deliberately, but Dr. Latzke declared he has no enemy and knows of no one who would knowingly do either himself or his family harm.

RAINS GENERAL AROUND VALENTINE

Valentine, Texas, Aug. 16.—For the past two days Valentine has received a slow, but continuous downpour of rain. The grass is fine and water plentiful in all the surface tanks.

Those who are ranching southeast of Valentine report a fine rain in their vicinity as far as the river country.

Matt Quinn is in from his river ranch and reports plenty of rainfall in his section of the country.

PLEIADES ASHORE; AID ON WAY TO HER

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 16.—The steam freighter, Pleiades, reported by wireless early this morning that she had gone ashore on the coast of Lower California.

Reckoning by her course and average speed, she seemed to have struck near Cape Lazaro, at the entrance to Magdalena bay. Her own message read: "Inside Cape Nassau, near Providence Island," points not given in the charts.

A wireless message from the tanker Washenaw, two days out from Port San Luis to San Jose, Guatemala, received later, stated that a vessel had gone to the aid of the Pleiades.

The Pleiades is a steel screw steamer of 3,755 tons and has a crew of 23 men.
